

The map above shows potential new sites where a new training facility is going to be built. The areas were chosen after applying a certain set of criteria to all the land in Athens Clarke County. The Green represents areas that are good for the new training sites.